The July 18, 1955, issue of the "National Guardian," page seven, column five, reflects an advertisement that the Arts, Sciences and Professions Starlight Forum has opened its season in Penthouse 10A, 59 West 71st Street and JOHN KILLENS, author of "Youngblood," was to be a speaker at 8:30 P.M. on July 24, 1955. This article advised that for information contact the New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, 35 West 64th Street, New York City.

The 1949 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948, aiming at national circulation, which they found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinistic in its staff, writers, management and content.

(1949 report of the California Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities, page 394).

The March, 1948 issue of "The Public Record," the monthly publication of the United Public Workers of America -

CIO, reflected on page seven, a photograph of JOHN KILLENS and it also reflected that he was the Business Agent of Local 10, United Public Workers of America - CIO.

It is to be noted, concerning the United Public Workers of America, Senate Document Number 89, dated October 19, 1951, entitled, "Communist Domination of Certain Unions" is a report of the Sub-Committee "On Labor and Labor Management Relations". The subject matter of this Senate document is the reports of the particular committee designated by the Congress of Industrial Organizations to hear and decide the charges of Communist domination against nine of its affiliates.

Page 133 of the document reflects "...On the basis of all of the evidence presented today, the committee unanimously concludes that the policies and activities of the United Public Workers of America are consistently directed toward the establishment of the program and purposes of the Communist Party rather than the objectives and the policies set forth in the Congress of Industrial Organization's Constitution."

The Committee requested that the United Public Workers of America be expelled from the Congress of Industrial Organization.

On March 1, 1950, the CIO officially expelled the United Public Workers of America from its rank as a CIO affiliate. This action was taken at a hearing held in February 1950, at which time it was decided that the United Public Workers of America had consistently followed the Communist Party line rather than strictly union policies and objectives laid down by the CIO.

B. Employment

On March 29, 1956, a pretext telephone call was made by a Special Agent of the FBI to 652 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number ST 9-5428. The person answering the call identified himself as JOHN KILLENS, and advised that he was employed at home as a writer, and that he was getting a new book ready for publication.

II AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

A. Miscellaneous Communist Party (CP) Activities

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

1) "Friday Forum"

[] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the "Friday Forum" is a Philadelphia neighborhood discussion group composed of a nucleus of Communists.

[] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 13, 1955, and January 11, 1956, that the subject was the featured speaker of the "Friday Forum" held at Melrose Park, Pennsylvania, on December 9, 1955. According to [] during the course of his speech, the subject elaborated on the following issues:

Discussion of a number of ~~incidents~~ occurring in the South in which the civil rights of Negroes were violated.

NY 100-102397

Desegregation in the schools, and efforts by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to aid the Negro.

The subject also read a chapter from his new novel, which is now in preparation. This novel deals with the problems of Negro soldiers during World War II, and according to the subject, most of the action takes place in the South Pacific where the subject was stationed during the war.

After the speech, a discussion period was begun, and the following questions were propounded for the subject's consideration:

An unknown individual asked the subject what he thought of civil disobedience by Negroes suggested by one NAACP official as a solution to the problems of the Negroes. KILLENS said he was opposed to such a policy, that the Negroes did not have enough power to make it effective, and that such a policy would lead only to mass retaliation by the whites and make conditions for the Negroes worse than they are now.

Another individual, unknown to [] then asked KILLENS if he had incurred any difficulty in getting his book, "Young Blood," published. KILLENS stated that suprisingly he had had no trouble. He stated that he had contacted the "paperback" publishers first, that they had been impressed, and had given him an advance on the book. As things turned out, however, the hard back copy of his book was published first.

KILLENS was then asked what he thought of ADAM CLAYTON POWELL attending the Bandung Conference as an independent delegate. KILLENS stated he felt that POWELL was strictly an "Uncle Tom" type of Negro, was doing the Negroes a disservice, and was a traitor to the Negro people. He commented that Congressman DIGGS, from Michigan, was one Negro who was really fighting for his people.' He pointed out that DIGGS had publicly announced he was going to challenge each Representative and Senator from Mississippi as to their rights to their Congressional seats, because Negroes in Mississippi were not allowed to vote. DIGGS maintained that since Negroes could not vote, the Congressman from Mississippi did not represent the people.

KILLENS was then asked his opinion regarding "Porgy and Bess" being presented overseas under the auspices of the State Department. He answered that while he enjoyed the show's music, he had always felt the subject material of the show degraded the Negroes. He added that he felt the Negroes who play in "Porgy and Bess" are opportunists who place their theatrical careers above the damage caused by the show to the Negro people as a whole.

III MISCELLANEOUS

[] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 15, 1956, that the subject, in December, 1955, was elected as a member-at-large on the staff of the Brooklyn, New York, NAACP.

[] on May 1, 1956, advised that he last saw KILLENS about one week ago on the street in Brooklyn, New York. [] stated that at this time KILLENS told [] that he is active in the Brooklyn chapter of the NAACP, which is now in the midst of a recruiting and membership drive. [] further advised that KILLENS stated that he is a Captain in this drive, and that he was then trying to get ten other persons to work with him in recruiting new NAACP members.

The "Daily Worker," issue of April 5, 1956, page 7, columns 2 and 3, gives a review of the novel, "Young Blood," by JOHN O. KILLENS, which was printed a couple of years ago and is now out in a paperback edition. According to the review, this novel depicts a Southern Negro family's struggle against "Jim Crowism." The review indicated that it was a better book on the enlightenment of anyone puzzled by what is going on in Montgomery, Alabama, these days and elsewhere in the South." This review urged the reader to buy a copy of the novel and give it to his neighbors.

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist daily newspaper.

Other informants, who have furnished reliable information in the past and who are familiar with some phases of Communist activities in the New York area, were contacted in December, 1955, January, February, and April, 1956, with negative results.

when recontacted on April 30, 1956, advised that he had no recollection of KILLENS making any statements on December 9, 1955, indicating KILLENS was connected with the Brooklyn, New York, NAACP.
